

Our customer is an international high-tech company located in Karlsruhe/Germany. It is a well-known provider of individual systems and services for civil and military aviation safety authorities. Serving more than 80 aviation safety authorities our company is part of a global high-tech group of companies.

We are currently recruiting a

Project Manager (IT) (m/f)

Tasks

- Creating project and quality whitepapers based on internal requirements.
- Steering and leading project teams.
- Responsible for defining and keeping forecasted project budgets.
- Regular reporting on project development.
- Close customer contact.

Requirments

- A university degree in economics or technical/IT study or anything comparable.
- At least 3 years of experience in managing and leading complex international IT projects.
- Ideally you have a project management certification.
- Excellent IT knowledge and experienced in contract reading and understanding.
- Fluent English is a must have.
- Hands-On and team player mentality are crucial.

What we offer:

- Ability to further develop your skills in a friendly, open and respectful environment.
- Possibility to manage work by yourself as long it is timely done.
- Free of charge fitness room.
- Additional grants for personal retirement funds.

Interested?

Please send your CV and salary expectations to Mr. Juwal Grauss Juwal.Grauss@valerto.com